The VIRGINIA GAZETTE, &c. EXTRAORDINARY.

RICHMOND: WEDNESDAY APRIL 4, 1792.

Diſmal Swamp Canal Company.

PROPOSALS for cutting a canal from the waters of Elizabeth river in Virginia, to thoſe of Paſquotank in North-Carolina, or for conducting the work, will be received until the ninth day of April next, by Robert Andrews of Williamſburg, by Thomas Newton, jun. and Daniel Bedinger, of Norfolk, in Virginia, by John Cowper of Gates county, and Benjamin Jones of Camden county, in North Carolina.—The length of the canal will be about ſixteen miles; the country through which it will paſs is flat and ſwampy, free from ſtones, and covered with heavy wood.—The canal is to be thirty-two feet in width, eight feet at leaſt in depth, below the ſurface of the earth, and capable of being navigated, in dry ſeaſons, by veſſels drawing three feet water. Good ſecurity will be required by contractors, and perſons making applications to be employed as managers, muſt produce certificates (from characters of reſpectability) of their qualifications for a buſineſs of this kind.

By order of the Preſident and Directors.

WM. A. BAYLEY, Clerk.

TO BE SOLD,

To the higheſt bidder, at the late dwelling-houſe of Mr. RALPH HYLTON, deceaſed, in the town of Mancheſter, on Wedneſday the 11th of April next,

All the PERSONAL ESTATE

of the ſaid deceaſed, conſiſting of eight valuable Negroes, two Horſes, one of them a good riding horſe, ſundry articles of houſehold & kitchen Furniture of the beſt kind, almoſt new, about two thouſand weight of Bacon, and a good collection of Law Books.—Twelve months credit will be allowed for all ſums above forty ſhillings, on giving bond and ſecurity to the Executors.

The papers found in poſſeſſion of Mr. Hylton, will be delivered to the perſons properly authoriſed to receive them, by applying to Mr. RICHARD GOODE in Mancheſter, who is authoriſed to receive, and ſettle all claims that may be brought againſt the ſaid eſtate; and it is requeſted that all perſons who have demands againſt the eſtate, will make them known to him, on or before the day of ſale. Thoſe that are indebted, are deſired to make payment immediately, as no indulgence can be given.

March 19, 1792. 3

☞ BEING authoriſed to ſettle all claims againſt the eſtate of Mr. William Black, ſen. deceaſed, do requeſt all thoſe that have demands on the ſaid eſtate to make them known to me; and thoſe that are indebted to the ſaid eſtate, will be pleaſed to provide for the diſcharge of their ſeveral balances they may owe, as no indulgence can be given in future.

RICHARD GOODE.

Mancheſter, March 16, 1792. 3

The noted HORSE

SHARK,

STANDS at my houſe in Cheſterfield county, Appamattox river, 14 miles above Peterſburg, near Moore's mill, and will cover Mares at FIVE GUINEAS per mare the ſeaſon, TEN the enſurance, and ONE DOLLAR to the groom. Good paſturage, gratis; all care taken, but will not be liable for accidents.

THOMS GOODE, ſen'r.

March 15, 1792.

☞ From a late Engliſh Calendar, now in the poſſeſſion of a gentleman in Frederickſburg, I am informed that one of SHARK's Colts has won eleven Kings plates. (4)

FITZ-PARTNER,

Bred by Everard Meade, Eſq; of Amelia county,

A fine bay, ſixteen hands and an inch high, of great activity, and highly formed, riſing eight years, got by the noted horſe Old Partner, out of the dam of Celar, ſtands at David Clarkſon's in Albemarle county, in order to cover Mares, at Eight Dollars the ſeaſon, Four Dollars the leap, and Fifteen Pence to the groom; the leap and groom money to be paid down, and a note to be ſent with the Mares payable the firſt day of November next, which may be diſcharged by the payment of Seven Dollars by the firſt of Auguſt, at which time the ſeaſon will expire. Great care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be reſponſible for any that may happen.

DAVID CLARKSON.
THOMAS JONES.

Albemarle, February 25, 1792.

The beautiful thorough bred Horſe

WILDAIR,

[Formerly the property of John Syme, Eſq. of Hanover county.]

STANDS the enſuing ſeaſon at my houſe in Dinwiddie county, and will be let to mares at THREE GUINEAS each the ſeaſon, to be paid at the expiration thereof, THIRTY SHILLINGS the ſingle leap, or SIX GUINEAS to inſure a mare's being with foal; but the money for the ſeaſon may be diſcharged with the payment of TEN DOLLARS, when the mares are brought; and in like manner, where a perſon, on whom I can rely, will be reſponſible for ſix mares or upwards, payable at the expiration of the ſeaſon, which ends on the firſt day of Auguſt.

Thoſe perſons who are ſo unfortunate as to miſs having foals, who ſent by the ſeaſon laſt ſpring, ſhall have a leap this ſpring gratis, provided the leap ſhould not prove ſufficient, they will then continue their mare by the ſeaſon on the above terms.

Not expecting as many mares to be left with as were laſt ſpring, muſt acknowledge I had been an inſufficiency of paſturage; which inconvenience I have ſufficiently remedied by making a very large enclоſure this winter for the ſole purpoſe of mares ſent to the horſe next ſpring, which contains a great quantity of the beſt graſs land.

WILDAIR being ſo remarkable for his certainty in getting foals, as alſo for their fine form, ſize and extra performances on the turf; that it is needleſs to expatiate on his remarkable good properties for breeding from.

WILLIAM STARK, jun.

N. B. I will not be liable for accidents.

February 22, 1792. W. S.

THE

Knight of Malta,

A fine JACK, from the Iſland of MALTA, will ſtand at Mount-Vernon, and cover at Four Pounds, (and Two & Six Pence to the groom) the enſuing ſeaſon.

Paſturage will be Half a Dollar per week—Theſe ſeveral ſums are to be paid at the ſtand before the mares, &c. are taken away. The paſtures are good, and remarkably well ſecured; but no warranty will be given againſt eſcapes or accidents
